God Testing Those He Loves

Dear Friends,

It seems our world is in a tailspin with uncertainty and fear running rampant. Could it be that we are being tested as by fire? I believe we are much nearer the coming of the Lord and we need to prepare our hearts. Our time-clock is Israel and the Middle East.

A Safe and Stable Place to Call Home

Mrs. Judy Howard

Dear Friends of His Nesting Place, God bless you! Thank you so very much for your faithful financial support and especially your prayer for my health. I will soon be receiving injections which will lower the human growth hormone level to "normal" and shrink and dissolve the remnant tumor on my pituitary gland. (Good news our insurance will cover the cost.) I covet your prayers for my complete recovery!

As you know we have 15 bedrooms here at His Nesting Place and they are almost always full of pregnant moms and children. From time to time the Lord will lead a non-pregnant lady here in desperate need of housing, love, and restoration. One such precious individual is Miss Sydney Bonner. Here is her testimony.

Sydney Volunteering at the Thrift Store.

I am 43 years old and never expected to end up homeless. I was adopted at 1 year old by a couple in Compton who could not have children. I was their only child. I have no family in the picture since both parents are now deceased.

I graduated from Argosy University in Orange, California with a Masters Degree in Education and have been a teacher from 1997 to 2009. My life drastically changed for the worse when I married a man who I didn't really know. It was a nightmare; we just couldn't get along.

The marriage ended in a bitter divorce last year which left me emotionally scarred and full of unforgiveness. I was living in turmoil, pain and confusion and couldn't work. How I needed the Lord to restore peace and order to my life since I lost everything, including a place to live.

Six months ago I was referred here by Pat Rice who brought me to His Nesting Place. For the first time, I found a safe and stable place to call "home." I am so very grateful to have my own comfortable bedroom and have made new friendships with the staff that I can trust to confide in and pray with me. I am able to get the emotional support I need. Also I go to the Career Transition Center to get help which helps me with job searching resources.

Volunteering at His Nesting Place has been a unique and great learning experience. I have also learned so much about the Pro-Life Ministry, adoption, and how to have a strong and healthy Christian family. Watching people grow here and change for the better has been so very rewarding!

Thank you from my heart for your support to His Nesting Place. That helped my life to get back on the right track.
